Mortgage Sales.

Whereas Enos Gaylord &

Jabez Willey, of the county of Hartford, in the state of Connecticut, for securing the payment of the sum of three hundred and twenty seven dollars and forty six cents with interest, did, by indenture, bearing date the third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & ninety seven, mortgage unto Charles Z. Platt, then of the county of Clinton, in the state of New-York, all that certain tract or piece of land, situate in Clinton county (now in the county of Franklin) in the state of New-York aforesaid, being part of lot no. fifty seven, in the general division of Town-ship number seven, formerly appropriated as bounty lands to the Officers and Soldiers of said state of New-York, but afterwards granted by letters patent to James Caldwell; which said tract begins at the north west corner of said lot number fifty seven and runs thence south forty chains; thence east forty chains; thence north forty chains; thence west forty chains, to the place of beginning containing one hundred and sixty acres of land—the above courses run as the magnetic needle pointed in the year 1787. And whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage—notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of a power contained in the said Indenture, the above described premises will be sold at Public Auction, at the Court-House in the town of Poughkeepsie, in the County of Dutchess, on the 27th day of May next, between the hours of ten and twelve in the forenoon of that day, and a conveyance executed to the purchaser by the subscriber.

No vember 26th, 1813.

CHARLES Z. PLATT.

By Abraham Buckee, his Att'y.

Whereas Isaac Finch, on the sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, for securing the payment of one hundred and twenty-four dollars and sixty seven cents, and interest, on the first day of October then next, and on the first day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, mortgaged unto Melancton Smith and John Bleeker, all that certain lot or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the town of Plattsburgh, in the county of Clinton and is part of lot number four, set apart by the original proprietors of the mills in said town, for building lots, and in a subdivision of said lot number four, is known as lot number seven, beginning at the corner of Oak Street, thence south to Caleb Nichols' land, thence east four rods, thence north to the highway, thence to the beginning, four rods, containing about twenty square rods of land.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of the said sum of money, with the interest secured thereby, now know all whom it may concern, that the said mortgaged and above described premises will be sold at public vendue by virtue of a power in said mortgage contained, at the Court-house in Plattsburgh, on the thirtieth day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated at Plattsburgh, this twenty seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

Melancton Smith,

John Bleeker.
